

THE GOOGLE WORLD:

GOOGLE MY MAPS

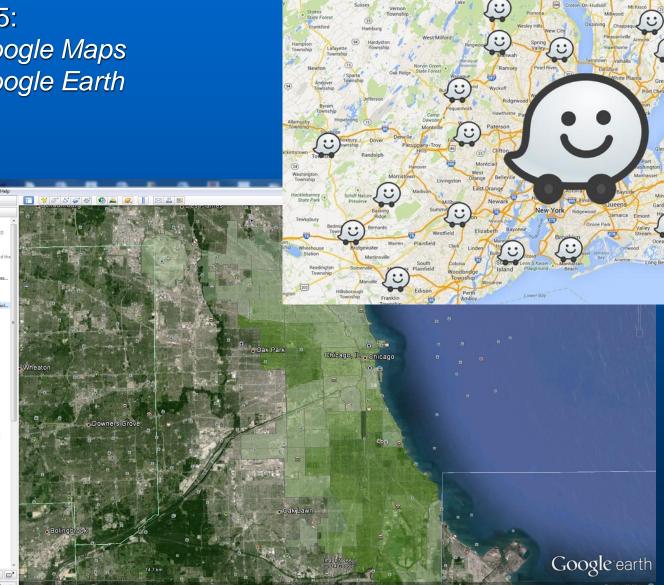

Erzsébet híd - Pest

PORTAGE PAR

BELMONT CRAGIN WEST RIDGE

HUMBOLDT PARK

- Google Maps
- Google Earth

Cloud-based map use

CLOUD-BASED CARTOGRAPHY AND GEOGRAPHY

Geovisualization (Gvis)

Geoweb

Spatial Literacy

Volunteered Geographic Information (VGI)

Virtual Globes

Geotagging

Mapping mashups

Open Source

Data Cloud

User generated content

Online maps

Mass Geography

Geoblogging

Neogeography

Crowd-sourcing

Lay Cartographers

Neocartography

Big Data

Collaborative Cartography

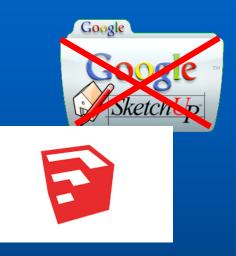

Why to use Google? GOOGLE GEO APIs

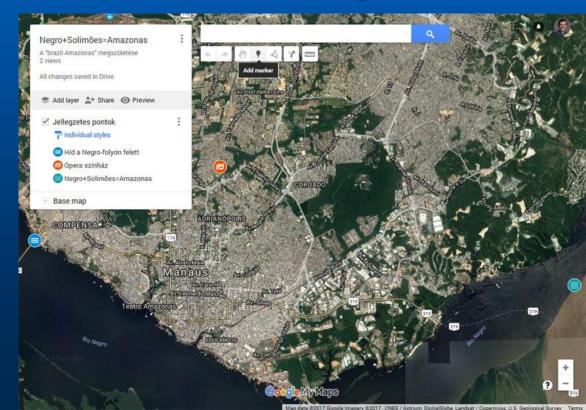

Google My Maps – online application to complete and improve Google
Maps with your own information

- Add directions (driving, cycling, walking)
- Measurement of distances and areas
- Placing points and areas of interest (markers and areas)
- Describing points and areas with texts, links and images

https://www.google.com/mymaps

Google My Maps – making of easy maps

- Your maps are automatically saved in your Google Drive partition

How can these maps be published?

- Sharing (Gmail, Google +, Facebook, Twitter)
- On a website (HTML is created automatically)
- Using Google Earth (export to KML format)

- Max. 2000 points and areas can be marked
- Max. 10 layers can be created on a map
- Max. 25 000 visits/day

Google My Maps - making of easy maps

